

W
E
L
C
O
M
E

Every Man, Woman and Child far and near are invited to visit our store during Street Fair Week, and we will take pleasure in showing you through our entire stock of Goods, where you will find the Best and Cheapest line of Dry Goods, Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Gloves, Notions and all kinds of Furnishings at prices that shame competition. Every item sold in this store is guaranteed to be as represented.

Yours for low prices,

M. K. FARMER

Northeast Corner Square.

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

Cliff B. Goodwin spent Sunday in the city.

Miss May Northern spent Monday in Kansas City.

Mrs. B. E. L. Smith has been quite sick for some days.

Jahleel Woodbridge returned Sunday from Kansas City.

Mrs. Dollie Baker of Mt. Leonard spent Sunday in Marshall.

The best oysters and oysters constantly on hand at Loomis'. 2c

Mrs. Wm. Durrett is quite sick at her home on South Jefferson Ave.

Some of Marshall's young people visited the Fortune Teller Sunday.

When you want a dish of oysters served all right, go to Loomis'. 2c

N. A. Jaimason of Oklahoma, is the guest of J. F. McHardy on Eastwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Holloway spent Sunday with relatives at Kansas City.

For the finest fresh oysters ever brought to this market, go to Loomis'.

Mrs. See who has been down for weeks with typhoid fever is improving.

L. J. Hamner, cashier of the bank at Miami for over 20 years is dangerously ill.

Miss Elizabeth and Leta Hancock of Blackburn are the guests of Mrs. J. W. Sparks.

Rev. Thomas Harris left Saturday for Kansas City, where he is attending conference.

Lester Lindsay will make three entries in the Flower Parade. A pony, a tiny cart and a surrey.

Mrs. John Lynd returned from Kansas City Saturday for a visit to Mrs. George Bruce on Marion St.

K. K. Mayer spent Sunday in Kansas City.

Thomas Barbee left Tuesday for Chicago.

E. J. Welsh of Keytesville, was in the city Friday.

W. C. Gower went to St. Louis on business Saturday.

Mr. Beamer has entered 5 horses for the Marshall fair.

Mrs. B. E. Sheppard of Colorado Springs is a recent arrival.

Miss Annie Cordell spent Saturday and Sunday in Kansas City.

Little Richard Horn is still quite sick at his home on College Hill.

John S. Meadows of St. Joseph talked business to our shoemen this week.

Mrs. Ida Franklin of Beachwood Ill. is visiting relatives in and near Marshall.

Mrs. Harry Huston was the guest of Mrs. D. C. Gore, for several days this week.

Mrs. Sadie Russell Stone, the guest of Mrs. Abiel Leonard, left Thursday for St. Louis.

J. H. Cordell arrived Sunday night from Arkansas and will visit his family for some days.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson of Mt. Leonard were in Marshall Saturday; they have recently bought a swell new road cart.

We invite our friends to make our office their headquarters during the Street Fair. Van Dyke & Co., 1st door W. of Bank of Saline.

Rev. F. V. Campbell of Warrensburg and H. S. Pillard of Clarksburg attended the Baptist Convention last week and were guests of J. S. Nordyke on West Arrow.

Mrs. Mary Gaines is very sick at the home of Richard Gaines south of the city.

Mrs. Edgar Dawes has returned from a brief visit to friends at Kansas City.

Mrs. Katherine Eubank was the guest this week of Miss Dyer of Kansas City.

Mrs. Annie Irvine of Fairville, was the guest Saturday of J. D. Fristoe and wife.

Mrs. John W. Rose and Miss Ola Walker spent Monday in Kansas City shopping.

Aubrey Neff and Wm. Mead of Slater were guests of Ex Collector Gwinn Saturday.

Miss Maude Orear who has typhoid fever is still quite sick at her home on East North St.

H. H. Hawkins spent Sunday in the city and left Monday for Slater and other points east.

Mrs. A. L. Brown of Hardeman was the guest Monday of Mrs. J. F. McHardy on Eastwood.

Dr. Wm S Sharp who has been confined to the house some three weeks, went to his office on Monday.

Mrs. Effie Wadsworth of Missouri City, and Miss Louise Cantler of Sweet Springs arrived Monday and will attend Missouri Valley College.

Dr. Mayfield and wife, who attended the Baptist Association last week were guests of C. M. Buckner and wife on Brunswick Ave. They left for home Saturday morning.

Rev. J. C. Worley and wife left Tuesday on the 3:30 train for Portland Oregon where they will spend Sunday. From there they go to San Francisco where they spend some days when they will sail for Osaka, Japan.

Mrs. H. S. Bogle of Richmond, Mo., is expected this week to visit her sister, Mrs. A. L. Jarden.

Insure your property against fire and tornado with Van Dyke & Co. Only the best Cos. represented.

W. C. Gordon left this week for Harvard University, where he will take his A. M. degree this year.

Dr. and Mrs. L. P. Bowen were entertained at the home of J. L. Woodbridge several days last week.

The finest line of California fruits, consisting of pears, peaches, grapes, etc., can be found at Loomis'. 2c

Miss Nancy Huston of Lexington, will arrive Saturday and will spend Fair week with Miss Pat Parrish.

Mrs. L. C. McMath has returned to Kansas City after a visit to her sister Mrs. Robert Reynolds on Odell.

Miss Wessie Frazer, of Lexington, Ky., arrived Sunday for a visit to G. M. Francisco and family on North St.

Miss Louie Trigg, of Boonville, will arrive Saturday for a visit to Dr. and Mrs. John R. Hall on East Arrow St.

The address on State Missions by Rev. West of Carrollton, Friday afternoon, at the Association is said to have been a very fine one.

Miss Mattie Rea who has been spending the summer at Sedalia and other points, will arrive Saturday, accompanied by Mrs. Phil Ott, who will remain until after the Fair.

Rev T. F. Gallaher of Blackburn was the guest Sunday of W. W. Barks and wife, on Odell. Mr. Gallaher was recently examined at Eldorado Mo, and licensed to preach; he will return to Louisville next week, to complete his work at the Seminary.